Object:	King Boris III and German officers
Description:	Indoor photograph of eight men, some of them in military uniforms with hats in their hands, others in plain city clothes. They are standing in front of a showcase. A man in a uniform with a swastika armband is apparently explaining the architectural model of a motorway. On the wall behind the group there is a large photograph of a bridge.
Comment:	King Boris III and German officers discussing a project for a bridge across the Danube during World War II.
