Comment:	Willy Fritsch and Hannelore Schroth were cast as the couple, Herta Mayen as the young woman. The film was directed by Viktor Tourjansky and released in 1943.
