Object:	Boy with a 'Soko' cap and football
Description:	Portrait of a small boy in a courtyard on a sunny day. He is wearing a neat jacket with a white sailor collar, short trousers, dark stockings, leather shoes and a sailor hat with the emblem of the Soko youth organization: the letters SOKO are positioned between two flags. He poses for the camera holding a leather football in both hands. A few metres behind him are the blurred silhouettes of three men, one in uniform, one in an apron, and one sitting on a bench.
Comment:	Four-year-old Svetozar Milišić was found lost in Knez Mihailo Street, close to the building of the Serbian Academy of Sciences (Srpska Akademija nauka i umetnosti, SANU), on 30 May. A police officer took him to the municipal office, where the boy was dressed in a fresh Vrbica outfit. After he spent three days at the office without his parents being found, the administration asked the daily Vreme to publish a photograph of Svetozar.
