Object:	Studio portrait of Ana Genčić with her son
Description:	Half-length portrait of a seated woman in a high-necked floral dress. She is embracing her young son. The boy is wearing a white suit, sitting on a wooden table.
Comment:	Ana Genčić, née Pačić, was Jovan Pačić's daughter and the great-granddaughter of Toma Vučić Perišić (1787/1788, Barič – 1859, Belgrade), who was considered a hero of both the First and the Second Serbian Uprising. She was married to Serbia's first surgeon, Colonel Dr. Lazar Genčić (1868–1942), who had studied medicine in Vienna. Ana is the grandmother of Jelena Genčić, a famous (retired) Serbian tennis and handball player. Photograph kept in the collection of the Genčić family.
