Object:	Studio portrait of Božidar "Boco" Vlajić
Description:	Half-length shot of a young man in a suit. He is wearing a hat and is holding a pair of gloves in his right hand.
Comment:	Božidar Vlajić (1888–1974) became a famous politician (member of the Yugoslav Democratic Party) in interwar Yugoslavia. After WWII he remained in Great Britain as an emigrant (the Communist Party, which came into power, banned the Democratic Party; its members were persecuted). He was one of the founders of the "Democratic Alternative".
