Object:	Monument commemorating the Kosovo Heroes
Description:	Collage embedding the photograph of a monument into the drawing of fictitious surroundings, which feature flags flying on decorated poles, lampposts, flower beds and conifers.
Comment:	The monument dedicated to the "Kosovo Heroes" is a landmark of Kruševac and was made by Serbian sculptor Đorđe Jovanović. It was unveiled on 'Vidovdan' (St. Vitus Day and memorial day of the Battle of Kosovo) in 1904 in the presence of King Petar I Karađorđević. The sculptural elements of the monument were exhibited at the World Exhibition in Paris in 1900. Made in the spirit of the French academism, the pyramidal composition with the dominant composition of the Kosovo hero Boško Jugović (one of the main characters of the Kosovo legend) and a fairy at the top, as well as the sculptures of a national poet and a girl (personification of Serbia) at the foot, the author presents the basic idea of Serbian centuries-long struggle for national freedom.
