Object:	Studio portrait of Vela Nigrinova
Description:	Full-length shot of a woman sitting and leaning back on a padded bench. She is dressed in a white, short-sleeved lace dress. Her hands are folded behind her head and she is gazing up at the ceiling. A painted canvas backdrop is creating the impression of the scene being set outdoors.
Comment:	Vela (Avgusta) Nigrinova (1862, Ljubljana – 1908, Belgrade) was the daughter of a Czechoslovakian father and a Slovenian mother. She was married to Davorin Jenko, a Slovenian composer and the author of the Serbian national anthem 'Bože pravde'. Vela is considered a superb early Serbian actress. For the major part of her acting career she lived in Belgrade and played at the Royal Serbian National Theatre.
