Object:	Studio portrait of Cabinet / Ministry of Prime Minister Konstantin Stoilov
Description:	Full length shot of a group of eight men, seven of them in formal suits, one in military uniform; all with insignia of honour. Six of the men are seated in the first row around a covered table. A man in military uniform and a man in plain city clothes are standing left and right behind a seated man in the center. A painted canvas backdrop is creating the illusion of the scene being set in a lounge.
Comment:	Members of the Cabinet with Prime Minister Konstantin Stoilov (1853 – 1901), who was a leading Bulgarian politician and twice Prime Minister of the Principality of Bulgaria. His first reign as Prime Minister lasted only for a brief spell in 1887. His second mandate was 1894 - 1899.
